

HIPHOP BALL

PRESS RELEASE

The First HipHop Ball at Berlin's Red Town Hall: Where HipHop Meets Classic

On November 15, 2025, the iconic Red Town Hall will host a groundbreaking event: the first-ever HipHop Ball in Berlin. Originally founded in Vienna, this unique ball has attracted approximately 1,500 guests annually. Conceived by Viennese visionary Sajeh Tavassoli, who has Iranian roots, the concept was born in 2015 to merge Viennese ball traditions with HipHop culture in an extraordinary fusion. The event comes to Berlin, showcasing a unique synergy of urban and classical influences, uniting people who rarely cross paths. Kai Wegner, Berlin's Governing Mayor, proudly serves as the patron of this extraordinary event.

Partnerships and Highlights

The HipHop Ball is backed by prominent partners, including the Flying Steps, the DDR Museum, and the charity partner Life-TeachUs, which focuses on empowering disadvantaged youth through education.

One of the event's highlights is the "Chain of Glory" Award, which celebrates women who have left an important mark on Germany's HipHop scene through their creativity and dedication. This special edition honors female pioneers across diverse disciplines such as music, dance, graffiti, and poetry.

Dress Code: Elegance Redefined

Ladies: Full-length gown or classic ball dress

Gentlemen: Tuxedo, suit, or tailcoat with bow tie
